Affidavit of Todd Price, Chief Technology Officer at Page Vault, Inc.

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
NASHVILLE DIVISION

J.H., by next friend BETTY HARRIS	)
Plaintiff,	)
v.	)	Case No. 3-14-2356
	)	Judge Trauger
WILLIAMSON COUNTY, ET AL.,	)	Magistrate Judge Holmes
Defendants.	)

I, the undersigned, do hereby swear, certify, and affirm that:

1. I am over the age of 18 and am not a party to this action. All foregoing facts are based on my personal knowledge, which I would be willing to testify competently to if called as a witness at trial.
2. I am the Chief Technology Officer at Page Vault Inc., located at 321 N. Clark St., Suite 2550, Chicago, Illinois, 60654. I have been so employed since March 2013.
3. Page Vault is a cloud-based service that enables Users to control a remote, cloud-based browser to make captures of webpages.
4. Users first establish a connection from their computer to the Page Vault Capturing Server (PVCS). This connection uses the Remote Desktop Protocol (RDP), which provides a graphical user interface to connect to another computer over a network connection. RDP connections operate over an encrypted channel. RDP allows the User to remotely control the Page Vault Browser (PVB) software that is installed on the PVCS.
5. The PVB is a proprietary browser that utilizes Microsoft's Trident rendering engine or Google Chrome's browser engine. The PVB restricts the user from modifying the webpage, accessing or modifying the webpage's source code, installing browser plugins, or otherwise altering the contents of the webpage or the internet traffic between Web Servers (WS) and the PVCS.
6. As the User controls the PVB, the PVCS establishes an active web browsing session with various WS.

7. Remotely controlling the PVB, Users can cause the PVCS to create Captures of webpages locally to the PVCS. Captures include the way the webpage looked in the PVB along with associated metadata. Captures are digitally signed and hashed.
8. Page Vault securely stores these Captures on Page Vault's Servers (PVS).
9. Users can access, review, and download the Captures by logging into the Page Vault Portal (PVP) website. The PVP uses the HTTPS protocol, which secures communication over a computer network. Users must enter their password to log into the PVP.
10. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a true and accurate copy of a Capture of a public Facebook post and the public comments made on said post. This post was captured by Page Vault personnel on Friday, February 24, 2017. The URL from which this post was captured is listed on the cover page of this exhibit, as well at the bottom left hand corner of each page.
11. Attached hereto as Exhibit B is a true and accurate copy of a Capture of a public Facebook post and the public comments made on said post. This post was captured by Page Vault personnel on Friday, February 24, 2017. The URL from which the post was captured and the date on which the capture was made are listed on the cover page of this exhibit, as well as in the bottom left corner of each page.
12. Attached hereto as Exhibit C is a true and accurate copy of a Capture of a public Facebook post and the public comments made on said post. This post was captured by Page Vault personnel on March 9, 2017. The URL from which the post was captured and the date on which the capture was made are listed on the cover page of this exhibit, as well as in the bottom left corner of each page.
13. Attached hereto as Exhibit D is a true and accurate copy of a Capture made by Page Vault personnel documenting the Facebook users who publicly liked the comment posted by Elizabeth Harris stating "Yayayay!! We get to keep our DNA!! Now to get rid of the GAL! And learn "the rest of the story[.]"" This comment is reproduced on page 3 of the document attached as Exhibit C.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this 17th day of March, 2017 at Chicago, Illinois.

A federal court magistrate appointed a GAL and then gave him complete control over my civil rights case. I have put six hundred hours in this case and he has maybe 20 hours in it. He can settle the case and even fire me from representing my client. No one wants this case to go to trial a lot of bad things will become public. The GAL who admittedly has never had a case like this has already cut a deal and my 17 year old client will be denied his day in court.

Edra Smiley Just some thoughts /questions — Can you move the Court to remove the GAL if the GAL acted in a manner contrary to the 'child's best interest' — or lack of participation in the case? 2) Can you compel a hearing and have GAL to testify? 3) Can you challenge GAL under Rules of Evidence? 4) Are there any rules that prohibit the GAL report being entered prior to a hearing (according to the Rules of Evidence)? 5) If GAL is not child's attorney then GAL can be cross-examined regarding the GAL report?

Get a friend to file a public FOIA so its free and request all Gal certs from a 10 year span. Give them 10 days to turn them over. State its for public interest and you dont have to pay. They should hand over all the copies on certs for the period requested and their continuing education. If its less than Federal Gal standard its fraud. If none on file you know its a fraud appointment. Have your friend go to court and pick up the list of Gals, the cert copies, and education.

Mary Robbin Carroll-Bower Nora not everyone knows that loophole. I am also a 30 year paralegal and former two court deputy court clerk and PI. We pulled ten years worth of GAL certs here and found most of them were fraudulently operating in our county without certification or education required by Statute. The federal Statute is set for GALs. The State statute can be equal or greater but not less than the Federal Statute. Our county clerk did not even know that she had to have certs on file at the county court as required by law. Why? To protect the people from fraud. Nora Nolt. Looks can be deceiving at 62 they thought I was just a young dumb Mother. I instead am the educated Grandmother.

Mary Robbin Carroll-Bower I kept my Grandchild from being adopted out by fraud to strangers after a 15 month battle with three contract AGs and 2 fraudulent GALs. Of course I had Pls working the case too privately. I used to license all the Pl's in Tx. Three of my cousins are cops, two Attorneys and two Judges. I found myself in a different state. Years ago the Mother was parentally kidnapped in Tx. Texas allows for Grandjury. I was brought to testify and the kidnapper was extradited out of New York. My case was a conspiracy started by a young girl who had an affair with my husband. She is still stalking me after all these years. She became a cop and uses her buddies to help her. She is involved in my Grandchild's case AGAIN. I am in the process of writing a movie script: FATAL ATTRACTION TWO.

The judge will never readon with you or really listen to anything you have to say. I rolled the dice and decided to allow casa. My lawyer was totally agianst it. I did it anyways. She was legit and did exactly what casa should do. Be unbias to all parties and give an honest oppinion. To judge. this seems to be the main plan, Connie, I wish I had known while it was happening to me — deny rights during pre-adjudication - stifle anything the opposition has to say - if the opposition discovers fraud and tries to expose it - shut her up - appoint her a state public defender who works for the state - then trump up charges, threaten, lie, promise and get the stipulation (by fraud ) and prevent the trial from exposing - on the record the fraud — HOWEVER lack of subject matter jurisdiction can be brought up at any time and in any court. It's taken me a long time to figure it out - but now I'm fighting on those grounds. It seems like you could sue - but they don't care so long as they shut you and your client up. they'll do anything. that much I know.

Nicole Flatt No doubt. My son's 1st GAL admitted Brennen FAILED TO THRIVE multiple times in their care, but said it was in the past& she wanted to TPR us. That's literally terminating our rights so he can be adopted by the people who starve& neglect him. The 2nd GAL tried to put me in jail for Bring Brennen Home.

Connie Reguli shared her post. 20 hrs

I am more than upset.

Connie Reguli 20 hrs - Brentwood, TN

A federal court magistrate appointed a GAL and then gave him complete control over my civil rights case. I have put six hundred hours in this case and he has maybe 20 hours in it. He can settle the case and even fire me from representing my client. No one wants this case to go to trial a lot of bad things will become public. The GAL who admittedly has never had a case like this has already cut a deal and my 17 year old client will be denied his day in court.
